

Latest Approaches in Foot Reflexology & Oncology From England & Europe

Coronal Zone Therapy There are 40 points which can be located through the medial (inner) aspects of each foot and 32 points on the lateral (outer) edge of both feet. These can be worked by projecting the energy through the body from the outer margins into the core, or from the centre of the body radiating outwards to the surface. This method and the techniques easily integrate into your Reflexology, Massage, or Bodywork Routines. This useful tool in your practice gives additional perspectives when working with the wide range of health challenges presented by your clients.

How Reflexology Can Help Cancer During this class you will learn new, powerful and immediately useful techniques to assist in the body's self healing process, and you will abandon any lingering fear of applying Reflexology while developing a better understanding of what cancer is actually all about.

Instructor: Lee Anthony Taylor comes to us from New Zealand. Highly in demand, Lee teaches in England, Europe, Australia, New Zealand and the USA, is a frequent presenter at Reflexology Conferences, and is a healer of remarkable range of skills & knowledge. Lee brings a welcomed gentle energetic added dimension to Foot Reflexology.
