

Energy Healing & Aura Balancing

12 CE Hours

Self-Healing & Distance Healing Will Also Be Covered

Most people have heard of the electrical energy from their hands being able to help bring balance and harmony to mind, body, and spirit. In this hands-on Seminar students will learn a series of dynamic time proven techniques, designed to restore balance, harmony and well-being to a person's physical and subtle bodies. Special emphasis will be placed on proper preparation, mental focus, feeling the electrical field around a person, proper hand positioning, sequencing, and actually working with the subtle yet powerful energy fields of the body, especially with the five major Chakras. Thousands of people throughout the world have learned this simple step-by-step technique over the past 45 years. It has brought about what many would call absolute "miracles." Even if you have never done any healing before, you can emerge after two days as a confident energy healer. If you are an experienced healer you will gain a great deal from this workshop. You will also be taught how to send healing across the other side of the world. This is not a theoretical workshop (if there is such a thing), but is intensely practical. Also, it is complete in itself and will address many issues that are of particular concern to the would-be healer, such as protection of the healer and ways to enhance your own healing ability. The other awesome thing about it (actually there are many) is that it really does work.
